SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE

The Institute was founded in 1978 to provide a foundation for the teaching of, and research in, Women's Studies. It aims to promote a better understanding of the historical and contemporary situation of women in society. Beauvoir, a distinguished philosopher and feminist writer, authorized the Institute to use her name and continued to show great interest in its activities until her death in 1986.

All students registered in the Major, Minor or Certificate in Women's Studies are automatically members of the Institute. Undergraduate students from other departments may also become members by agreeing to undertake at least nine credits of WSDB courses.

Co-curricular activities are intended to serve women and men within the Institute, the University, and the community. The Institute sponsors renowned speakers on a variety of subjects ranging from literary criticism to international development and economics.

Those working towards a degree in Women's Studies will find it useful if pursuing a career in teaching, personnel management, labour relations, advertising, media, social work, publishing, journalism, law, business, politics, etc. Women's Studies can also bring a broader feminist understanding to other fields e.g. social work, nursing, therapy, or psychology.

OFFICE AT LOYOLA

There are two offices on the Loyola Campus where professors and students can meet in comfort. They are located in HB-103 and HB-104.

READING ROOM

The Reading Room, located on the 4th floor of the Simone de Beauvoir Institute at 2170 Bishop, is open part-time. For information concerning the hours, please call 848-2373 or 848-2377.

MEMBERS' LOUNGE

There is a Members' Lounge on the 4th floor of the Simone de Beauvoir Institute. It is available for studying, meeting with friends, or just relaxing.

W.S.S.A. (see details on the next page)

The W.S.S.A. office has a telephone and computer which are available for Women's Studies Students.

WOMEN'S STUDIES STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

WSSA is the Women's Studies Students' Association and it may be what you are looking for if:

- you would like to get to know other Women's Studies students better,
- you have ideas and/or comments you would like to share,
- you care about the Institute, the Women's Studies programmes and the women who surround you,
- you would like to see a higher student profile at the Simone de Beauvoir Institute.

The Women's Studies Student Association is a collective of students dedicated to furthering feminist studies. They believe, as feminists in a patriarchal setting, that the fostering of connections between women is vital to effect social justice. Women's Studies is not only an academic discipline; it should also be a force for feminist change.

WSSA is a resource for students in Women's Studies. We serve as student advocates within the structure of the Simone de Beauvoir Institute, both generally and on a case by case basis; we act as a liaison between Women's Studies and other feminist and social justice groups within Concordia; we undertake and support student ideas for activist projects and initiatives; we provide a dynamic space for alliance building and dialogue.

WSSA is committed to challenging oppression, hatred and prejudice through feminist education.

For more information, call the WSSA office at 848-7449 or leave a message in our mailbox at the Institute.

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

WOMEN'S STUDIES SCHOLARSHIPS:

THE MAIR VERTHUY SCHOLARSHIP

It was established in 1983, when Prof. Maïr Verthuy left her post as the first Principal of the Simone de Beauvoir Institute. In order to show an appreciation for her work and devotion to the Institute and Women's Studies, and to recognize, in a most concrete way, her skills as a teacher, mentor, initiator, and creative individual, several of her colleagues established the Maïr Verthuy Fund. The purpose of this Fund is to continue Prof. Verthuy's work by offering tangible, monetary support to a student in the Women's Studies Programmes. The recipient must have completed 60 credits with a minimum overall GPA of 3.0; of the completed credits, at least 30 must be from Women's Studies courses with a minimum 3.5 GPA.

THE PROVOST SCHOLARSHIP - SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE

This scholarship is awarded each spring to the student with the highest G.P.A. after completing their first semester.

THE MARJORIE S. DEWITZ BURSARY

This bursary is awarded to a full-time female undergraduate student doing a combination of Major/Minor in Women's Studies and Political Science. The student must have completed 24 credits of her programme and be academically deserving and financially needy. The applicant must also be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident.

GENERAL SCHOLARSHIPS:

FALL ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIP

A number of scholarships are available to students entering their first year of full time study. These are awarded by the University Scholarship Committee on the basis of academic achievement during the last three semesters of CEGEP or the equivalent. Applications are available from the Financial Aid Office. Application deadline is March 1.

JANUARY ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIP

A number of scholarships are awarded to students entering Concordia in January. Applications are available from the Financial Aid Office. Application deadline is November 1.

MATURE STUDENTS ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIP

This programme is intended for students entering a 108-credit programme. These students may apply for an entrance scholarship when they enter the 90-credit programme - i.e. have completed 18 credits. Applications are available at the Financial Aid Office. High academic standing is the only criterion for such an award.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON SCHOLARSHIPS, LOANS, AND BURSARIES
CONTACT THE FINANCIAL AID OFFICE AT 848-3507 or 848-3522.

KEY TO THE SYMBOLS USED IN THIS BOOKLET

The courses for the Women's Studies programmes are listed under Women's Studies/Simone de Beauvoir and carry the code: WSDB.

UNDERSTANDING THE NUMBERING OF COURSES

EXAMPLE: WSDB 290/2 Sec. AA

The WSDB indicates that the course is in Women's Studies.

The 290 indicates the level of the course:

i.e. 200 courses are at the introductory level

400 courses are at the more advanced level

The /2 is the term when the course is given:

i.e. /1 is given during the SUMMER session (3 or 6 credits)

/2 is given during the FALL session (3 credits)

/3 is given during the FALL & WINTER sessions (6 credits)

/4 is given during the WINTER session (3 credits)

The Sec. AA is an indication of the campus where the course is held and the time of day. Courses offered on the Loyola Campus have numbered lecture, lab, tutorial, and studio designations (e.g. 01, 02, 51, 52) while courses on the Sir George Williams Campus have lettered section designations (e.g. A, B, AA, BB).

A SINGLE digit (with a zero) or single letter indicates daytime courses.

DOUBLE digits or double letters indicate evening courses (after 4pm).

CREDITS EXAMPLE: WSDB 398<sup>3*</sup>

When you see a course number with a superscript (as in the example) the superscript indicates the number of credits for that course. In the above example, the superscript "3" indicates that this is a 3-credit course.

An asterisk "*" after the numerical superscript indicates that these courses are special topic courses offered from time to time. A student may take this kind of course for credit more than once as long as the subject matter is different as indicated by the letter following the number:

i.e. WSDB 398A/1 - Women and Madness: Whose Definition?

WSDB 398B/2 - Native Women

* This course may be repeated twice for credit in this programme provided the subject matter is different.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

Students have to consult with a Women's Studies Advisor and obtain an approval for all their courses prior to registration.

NOTE: Every year some courses are offered in various departments which are not listed in the Calendar but have substantial content relating to women; these may be recognized for credit in Group II of the Major, Minor or Certificate programmes. However, the courses in Group I cannot be replaced. To get replacements for Group II, you must fill out a Student Request Form and have it signed by the Academic Advisor for Women's Studies. Student Requests are processed by a special committee of the Arts and Science Faculty.

**Courses with different sections may have a different content depending on the instructor.****

Lec. BB	M----	18:05 - 20:10	SGW	T.B.A.
Lec. CC	--J-	18:05 - 20:10	SGW	T.B.A.

* Section BB is given in French.

This course looks at the lives and conditions of women in recent times; it explores systems of domination and women's resistance to them. It investigates how women have empowered themselves within these systems and have struggled for, and achieved, change. Topics may include women's organizations, socialization, education, language, economic and political structures. (3 credits)

WSDB 292/2 FEMINISMS AND RESEARCH METHODS

Lec. AA      --J-      16:05 - 17:55      SGW      T.B.A.

This course exposes students to a variety of research practices such as: oral history, case studies, multi-media representation, survey/content analysis, library research, and field work. It encourages students to think critically, and to improve their ability to gather, analyze, and effectively present ideas and information. (3 credits)

Prerequisite: Enrolment in a Women's Studies programme or permission of the Institute.

WSDB 380/2 FEMINIST THOUGHT I

Lec. AA      M---      18:05 - 20:10      SGW      T.B.A.

This course seeks to deconstruct the ideological premises of knowledge-production and provides an overview of various modes of knowledge, theory and activism among women in different cultural contexts. These types of knowledge range from storytelling to academic theorizing. The course provides key concepts and critical approaches for Feminist Thought II. (3 credits)

Prerequisite: 18 credits including WSDB 290, 291, and 292, and 9 credits from other WSDB or elective courses.

NOTE: Students who have taken this course under WSDB 394 may not take this course for credit.

WSDB 381/4 FIRST NATIONS WOMEN

Sem. AA      -T--      18:05 - 20:10      SGW      T.B.A.

This course aims to acquaint students with North American First Nations, particularly the women's contemporary realities. Other pedagogical objectives are to facilitate an understanding of cultural perception; to develop a critical viewpoint of ethnocentrism in mainstream society; to introduce the current debate around minority representation, cultural appropriation and postcolonial theory. (3 credits)

Prerequisite: 18 credits including WSDB 290, 291, and 292, and 9 credits from other WSDB or elective courses.

NOTE: Students who have taken this course under a WSDB 398 number may not take this course for credit.

WSDB 382/2 SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND WOMEN'S LIVES

Sem. AA -T--- 16:05 - 17:55 SGW M. Ainley

This course explores both historical trends and contemporary concerns regarding women, science and technology. It investigates: stereotypes of science and scientists; western science vs. native knowledge; science as a social activity and as a career choice for women; and the effects of science and technology on women's lives. (3 credits)
Prerequisite: 18 credits including WSDB 290, 291, and 292, and 9 credits from other WSDB or elective courses.

NOTE: Students who have taken this course under a WSDB 398 number may not take this course for credit. A SCIENCE BACKGROUND IS NOT NECESSARY.

WSDB 383/2 LESBIAN ISSUES AND REALITIES

Sem. AA M---- 16:05 - 17:55 SGW T.B.A.

This course introduces students to the field of lesbian studies and examines lesbian existence within a historical, as well as a contemporary, context. A central theme of the course is diversity among lesbians, not only in terms of race, class, ability, but also in terms of political consciousness. (3 credits)

Prerequisite: 18 credits including WSDB 290, 291, and 292, and 9 credits from other WSDB or elective courses.

NOTE: Students who have taken this course under a WSDB 398 number may not take this course for credit.

WSDB 390/4 WOMEN AND PEACE

Sem. AA --W-- 16:05 - 17:55 SGW C. Maille

This course will offer a critical feminist perspective on a series of themes related to the peace concept defined in its broadest sense. It will look for feminist peace politics through analysis of issues such as gender differences on attitudes related to violence, war and peace, maternal thinking, roles played by women during wars and in the mythology surrounding the warrior culture, violence and wars against women, feminism and militarism, and women in the army. Attention will be given to groups such as Voice of Women, feminist initiatives such as Greenham Commons and the Halifax Conference and ways to educate for peace. (3 credits)

Prerequisite: 18 credits including WSDB 290, 291, and 292, and 9 credits from other WSDB or elective courses.

WSDB 391/4      HEALTH ISSUES: FEMINIST PERSPECTIVES

Sem. AA            M----      18:05 - 20:10      SGW            K. Kailo

This course examines topics related to women's health today and in the past. The topics covered (breast cancer, AIDS, etc.) change annually. They may include questions concerning reproduction, the female body/anatomy, an analysis of doctor/patient relationships, mental health, psychoanalysis/psychotherapy, feminist therapy and healing. The seminar will also explore healing practices and medical beliefs that provide alternatives to traditional western medicine. Issues of race, class, gender, sexual orientation, ability and age will be addressed throughout. (3 credits)

Prerequisite: 18 credits including WSDB 290, 291, and 292, and 9 credits from other WSDB or elective courses.

WSDB 392/4      FÉMINISMES DANS LA FRANCOPHONIE

Sem. AA            -T---      16:05 - 17:55      SGW            L. Lequin

A partir de textes théoriques et d'ouvrages traitant de la vie quotidienne, ce cours examine les similitudes, les analogies et les traits distinctifs des luttes des femmes durant les deux dernières décennies, ici et ailleurs dans la francophonie, notamment les luttes des Arabes, des Antillaises ou des femmes d'Afrique noire.
